CRIJ 2328.5001 (13186) - Police Systems and Practices

The Thin Blue Line: Heroism or Corruption? CRIJ 2328 Police Systems and Practices course will go beyond the textbook and explore how pop culture has created an astonishing influence over public perception in regards to the law enforcement component of the Criminal Justice System. Through movies, documentaries, trending headliners, social media, music, and other pop culture themes, students will analyze the origins, current state, and future of policing as it relates to methods of policing, corruption, brutality, and the history of law enforcement agencies.

TUESDAY THURSDAY 1:30 – 2:50 PM
