Clery Crime Alert
Stalking, LSC-University Park

On April 16, 2019 at approximately 1:58 p.m., a non-student, Samantha Pimentel was reported to have been at University Park Campus standing outside of a classroom looking at her former professor. The professor told officers that she was rocking back and forth but did not speak. Ms. Pimentel had previously been issued an order to not contact that professor.

LSC Police located Ms. Pimentel in a locked classroom across the hall from the professor’s class. She refused to answer questions. She was issued a criminal trespass warning and escorted off campus. Within an hour, Ms. Pimentel returned to the area. She was taken into custody and by recommendation of the District Attorney was transported for mental health evaluation.

Ms. Pimentel has been advised that she is not to return to any LSC properties. If anyone sees her on Lone Star College property in the future, do not approach, but call LSC Police Dispatch immediately at 281-290-5911 for a police response.

Ms. Samantha Pimentel is described as:

- Hispanic Female
- 25 years old
- 5'04" in height
- Approximately 120 lbs.

Crime Prevention Tip:
