Basic Principles of Oil and Gas
Corporate College Seminar Series
Lone Star College Energy & Manufacturing Institute

Date: September 16-18
Presented by: Lone Star Corporate
Format: Instructor led training and field trip to a rig (Ocean Star Museum) Monday through Wednesday 8:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m.
Course: PTRTC 1109100
Classroom: Lone Star College-University Park
Location: 20515 State Highway 249 (@ Louetta Rd.) Houston, TX 77070
Description: This course is designed for those who need a basic understanding to perform their jobs, including:
- Technical/business professionals new to the petroleum industry or experienced in one area
- Investors/financial professionals with a need to better understand the petroleum industry.
- All levels of petroleum industry support staff

Objectives: Topics will include:
- History of Oil & Gas
- Geology of Oil & Gas
- Basic terminology and the Overall Lifecycle
- Drill Operation Basics
- Completion, Monitoring and Workover
- Economics of Oil and Gas
- Current News

Total Hours: 24 hours Total Cost: $599.00

Second day of class will be held at the Ocean Star Drilling Rig Museum and Education Center, where student will experience the drilling industry first-hand on an actual retired jack – up drilling rig.

For more information, contact: Michael Burns
Director, Corporate College
Professional Studies
Michael.Burns@LoneStar.edu
281.290.2925

For registration assistance, contact: Amy Cooper
Amy.F.Cooper@LoneStar.edu
936.271.6342

View a Complete List of Upcoming Seminars

LoneStar.edu/CorporateCollege
281.296.STAR (7827)
CorporateCollege@LoneStar.edu