2013–2014 Verification
Child Support Paid

Your 2013–2014 Free Application for Federal Student Aid (FAFSA) was selected for review in a process called verification. The law says that before awarding Federal Student Aid, we may ask you to confirm the information you (and your parent(s) or spouse, if applicable) reported on your FAFSA. To verify that you provided correct information, the financial aid administrator at your school will compare your FAFSA with the information on this form and with any other required documents. If there are differences, your FAFSA information may need to be corrected. You must complete and sign this form, attach any required documents, and submit the form and other required documents to the financial aid administrator at your school. Your school may ask for additional information. If you have questions about verification, contact your financial aid administrator as soon as possible so that your financial aid will not be delayed.

B. Child Support Paid

Complete this form if you (or your spouse, if married) or one of the student’s parents (if dependent student) paid child support in 2012. Check the box that applies:

☐ Either I, or if married, my spouse paid child support in 2012. I have indicated below the name of the person who paid the child support, the name of the person to whom the child support was paid, the names of the children for whom child support was paid, and the total annual amount of child support that was paid in 2012 for each child. If asked by my school, I will provide documentation of the payment of child support. If you need more space, attach a separate page that includes your name and the last 4-digits of your Social Security Number at the top.

☐ One (or both) of my parents, that are included in my household reported on the FAFSA, paid child support in 2012. The parent has indicated below the name of the person who paid the child support, the name of the person to whom the child support was paid, the names of the children for whom child support was paid, and the total annual amount of child support that was paid in 2012 for each child. If asked by the school, I will provide documentation of the payment of child support. If you need more space, attach a separate page that includes the student’s name and the last 4-digits of your Social Security Number at the top.
NOTE: If neither you or your spouse or parents, if applicable, paid child support in 2012, please contact your financial Aid Office for further instructions.

C. Certification and Signature

I certify that all of the information reported on this form is complete and correct.

The student must sign this form.

If married, the spouse’s signature is optional.

If dependent student, at least one parent must sign.

WARNING: If you purposely give false or misleading information on this form, you may be fined, be sentenced to jail, or both.
