

Financial Aid Ethics and Code of Conduct

Lone Star College System Statement of Ethical Principles

Our financial aid staff will:

- Be committed to removing financial barriers for those who wish to pursue postsecondary learning.
 - Make every effort to assist students with financial need.
 - Be aware of the issues affecting students and advocate their interests at the institutional, state, and federal levels.
 - Support efforts to encourage students, as early as the elementary grades, to aspire to and plan for education beyond high school.
 - Educate students and families through quality consumer information.
 - Respect the dignity and protect the privacy of students, and ensure the confidentiality of student records and personal circumstances.
 - Ensure equity by applying all need analysis formulas consistently across the institution's full population of student financial aid applicants.
 - Provide services that do not discriminate on the basis of race, gender, ethnicity, sexual orientation, religion, disability, age or economic status.
 - Recognize the need for professional development and continuing education opportunities.
 - Promote the free expression of ideas and opinions and foster respect for diverse viewpoints within the profession.
 - Commit to the highest level of ethical behavior and refrain from conflict of interest or the perception thereof.
 - Maintain the highest level of professionalism, reflecting a commitment to the goals of the National Association of Student Financial Aid Administrators.
