Welcome to LSC-North Harris!
Lone Star College-North Harris, responding to the needs of local hotel, restaurant and general hospitality businesses, has developed the associate of applied science degree in hospitality management. Working closely with outside advisors, experienced faculty provide students with numerous opportunities to develop positive customer service attitudes, informed decision-making skills, and problem-solving techniques related to this growing industry. The capstone course in co-operative education is an excellent means for students to experience first-hand the rewards and challenges involved in creating a welcoming experience for consumers.
