Meet The Lone Star College-Tomball Workforce Advising Team!

Anita M. Dann, MSL—Advisor II, Workforce

Anita Mirobin Dann started her career at Lone star College as a Workforce Advisor II in May 2019. Prior to working as a Workforce Advisor, Anita served as an adjunct faculty member teaching English and Social Studies at Rio Salado College in Phoenix, AZ., from 2015 to 2017. Her career in higher education started in 2007, as a Student’s Admission Advisor. Since then, she has held various positions throughout the college system, that provided invaluable experience to help college’s and their perspective student’s, achieve operational success. Some of her achievements include Arizona Association of Lifelong Learning Rookie of the Year October 2017, Rio Salado College, Rising Adjunct Star August 2016, Nominee for World Class Customer Service Award - 2ND QTR 2009, Walk in my Shoes- Mentor, (Lean Six Model) Green Belt- Apex Initiative Committee member and certified project manager. She holds a Master’s degree in Educational Leadership from Grand Canyon University -Magna Cum Laude, and a Bachelor’s degree in Psychology. Anita enjoys spending time with her family outdoors and exploring their new home state of Texas.

Anthony Froelich—Advisor II, Workforce

Anthony Froelich began his journey as a Workforce Advisor II in the June of 2018. Prior to his current role at Lone Star College, he enjoyed living and working with students at Oklahoma State University-Institute of Technology as a Residence Coordinator from 2016-2018. His career in Higher Education began during his time at his Alma Mater, Houston Baptist University, where he was heavily involved with incoming students and almost every facet of campus life. He is currently pursuing his Masters of Arts in Higher Education Administration and a Graduate Certificate in Advising from Sam Houston State University. He is a native Houstonian and also a Tomball local. At one point in time, he was even a dual credit student at our campus! When he’s not working or studying, Anthony enjoys spending his time with family and family, cooking, or playing basketball and volleyball.