Shine a Light on Human Trafficking—Special Houston Event

On Tuesday, Sept. 24, at 6:30 p.m. in the Student Conference Center, the city of Houston will present a special program to be broadcast from the steps of city hall to bring attention to the issue of human trafficking in our city. Speakers and guests will include the mayor, the chief of police, the county district attorney, the Harris County sheriff, a survivor of human trafficking, and a special dance performance. We will carry this event live on two giant screens in our SCC. Please plan to attend and learn what the issues are and what we can do to help. Please ask your professors if you can receive extra credit for attending this important program. Sponsored in collaboration with the Intercultural Center, the Men’s Center and the Nursing Honors Program.

“You may choose to look the other way, but you can never say again that you did not know.”
--William Wilberforce, Abolitionist, 1759-1833

Can you help?

FamilyTime’s shelter for abused individuals, The Door, is in need of toiletry items for their clients. If you can donate either full-size items or the small hotel type, please leave them at the Women’s Center. They are greatly appreciated as these individuals frequently leave their home with only the clothes they are wearing. FamilyTime’s 24-hour hotline, 281-446-2615.
