

A51--CAPITALIZATION

Capitalize all words that should be capitalized.

1. emily and letitia traveled north to seattle, washington, after living for many years in the east.
2. he worked at the stanton building in july and august.
3. the children read a tale of two cities in woodworth elementary school today.
4. stanley longstreet, the new minister, liked to call his mother “ma.”
5. reverend mc allister visited the president in the california white house.
6. my brother studied spanish, business history 202, accounting 101, and he also took courses in government and sociology.
7. the old man lived on limpwillow road in southern alabama during the civil war.
8. during her trip to europe, she visited the duke of edinborough, stayed at hastingen castle, and fell into lake tahootie.
9. the article, “don’t eat too much turtle soup” was published in the may issue of town and country magazine.
10. over and over again, emily screamed, “i don’t believe you, henry. You are a member of the ku klux klan.”