

Letter of Intent for Non-Resident Veterans, Member of Armed Forces, Spouses and Dependents

Section 54.058(g) and (k) of the Texas Education Code and Title 19, Part 1, Chapter 21, Subchapter B, Rule 21.29(l) of the Texas Administrative Code provides that persons eligible for benefits under the federal Post 9/11 Veterans Education Assistance Act of 2008, or any other federal law authorizing educational benefits for veterans, are eligible to pay the resident tuition rate without regard to the length of time they have been in the state, as are their spouses and children (including stepchildren), or the spouses or children of an active member of the Armed Forces stationed outside Texas, if they meet the following Conditions.

- (i) File a letter of intent with their institution to establish residency in Texas
- (ii) Reside in this state while enrolled in the institution
- (iii) If qualifying as a child, be 25 years of age or younger on the first day of the term in which the person is registering unless meeting the hardship provisions described in clause (iv) of this subparagraph; and
- (iv) If the child applying for an exemption under this provision is 25 years of age or older, but can provide proof to the institution of severe illness of other debilitating condition that affected the person's ability to use the benefit before reaching that age, the child's period of eligibility to use the waiver shall be extended for a length of time equal to the period of illness or incapacity.
