From the U.S. to Brazil: Contrasts in Offshore Energy Legal Frameworks

In this seminar, learn how new legal framework has recently affected the Brazilian oil and gas sector.

Attendees will also receive an overview of current constitutional, environmental and economic issues.

Get the answers to questions like:

- What business and jobs opportunities are related to the oil reserves recently found in Brazil?
- What can countries like the United States learn from the Brazilian experience?
- What legal framework is necessary for safe oil and gas exploration?

This seminar is perfect for anyone who:

- Wants to learn the major issues of Brazilian oil and gas legal framework
- Works with a company’s Brazilian branch
- Wants to work with Petrobras
- Wants to know more about liability and environmental law

Presented by:
Claudio A. Pinho, LL.M., LL.B.
Professor, Constitutional & Energy Law
Instituto Belo Horizonte de Ensino Superior
Belo Horizonte, Brazil

Date:
Friday, April 27

Time:
11 a.m. – 1 p.m.

Place:
Lone Star Community Building
5000 Research Forest Dr.
The Woodlands, TX 77381

Cost:
$25 (lunch included)

To register:
Lonestar.edu/Professional-Seminars

For more information:
Michael.Burns@Lonestar.edu