The associate of applied science degree in fire science technology is designed to enhance firefighters’ knowledge base and help students obtain advancement opportunities in the fire service field. The program is also designed to provide opportunities for job advancement for currently employed fire fighters. The structural firefighting certificate is for students wanting to pursue entry-level opportunities as fire fighters. Interested students should contact fire science technology faculty for information regarding application and admission to the program.

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Mike Naglieri
281.290.5902
Michael.A.Naglieri@LoneStar.edu
LSC-CyFair

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
Jason DeVries
281.318.4334
Jason.DeVries@LoneStar.edu
LSC-Kingwood

FOR MORE INFORMATION:
David Griffin
281.210.5831
David.K.Griffin@LoneStar.edu
LSC-Montgomery

Median Wage: $48,684

Basic Structural Firefighter Certificate
Available at LSC-CyFair, LSC-Kingwood, and LSC-Montgomery
LoneStar.edu/Fire-Science-Certificate

For additional fire science technology AAS requirements check out the latest information:
LoneStar.edu/Fire-Science-Requirements

Representative career titles and job positions for this program plan include:

- Firefighter

1. Median Wage: $48,684

1. Position titles vary by employer and location.

Complete your Fire Science Technology AAS in 2 years!

For more information on gainful employment, visit LoneStar.edu/GainfulEmployment.