Articulating: Talks about Art
This is art appreciation in a completely different way! Learn how to understand and enjoy what you see in museums, galleries, and exhibitions. No previous art history or knowledge necessary. Wendy Adler has been leading discussions about art in senior communities and for organizations around Houston since moving here in 2016. Her talks are interactive and given in a conversational manner. Previously, Wendy led a school art history program in the Dallas area. She is a former Docent at The Modern Art Museum in Fort Worth and currently a Docent at the Houston Contemporary Craft Center and member of the Museum of Fine Arts Houston’s Guild Speakers Bureau. Meets in the afternoon: 9/24, 10/22, 11/12, and 12/3. (CF)

Investing During Uncertain Times
The last decade or so has shown us a new economic reality marked by dramatic highs and lows in the markets. If you are interested in what caused this chaotic market behavior and how to manage your risks – you are not alone. This workshop will cover the economic cycle and the importance of investing for all of its phases. 1. Explore the issues surrounding market volatility. 2. Learn strategies that may mitigate risk. 3. Understand the economic cycle and its impact on investing. (MC)

Organ and Tissue Donation
Every 10 minutes a patient in the United States is added to the organ waiting list and every day 22 people die waiting for life saving organ. This course navigates students through the organ and tissue donation process from donor registration to transplantation. This information will empower students with understanding how organ and tissue donation work so each individual can make an educated choice about donor registration. Kristina Healy will review, what organs and tissue can be transplanted, who can be a donor how having conversations with family and friends about organ and tissue donation helps our community overcome fears, taboos and misconceptions so more lives could be saved. Kristina will review available resources and organ and tissue donor registries will be outlined. This class is a three-part session, 9/9, 10/14 & 11/9. (UP)
