submitting a student’s civil rights complaint. The College’s policy forbids retaliating against any person who submitted a civil rights complaint. The College's policy also forbids retaliating against anyone who helps investigate such a complaint. A complaint’s actual or perceived truth does not excuse retaliatory conduct. Any person who observes retaliation should promptly notify the applicable Chief Student Services Officer or President.

VI.D.13. Student Organizations

VI.D.13.01. Policy
The College provides equal opportunities to all students participating in student organizations regardless of race, color, sex, age, sexual orientation, religion, ethnic or national origin, disability, veteran status, political, philosophical, ideological, or academic viewpoint,18 or any other protected status. The College cannot deny a student group registration because of the group’s views. Additionally, the College allows Student Organizations and faculty to invite speakers subject to Viewpoint- and Content-Neutral speech restrictions.19

VI.D.13.02. Definitions

(a) Risk Management Program means a program that discusses the following topics:

(1) possessing and using alcoholic beverages or illegal drugs, including penalties that may be imposed for possessing either substance; (2) hazing; (3) sexual harassment; (4) fire and other safety issues, including possessing and using a firearm, other weapon, or explosive device; (5) traveling outside the College’s location area; (6) behavior at parties and other events held by a student organization; and (7) adoption by a student organization of a risk management policy.

(b) Student Organization means any organization that is composed mostly of students enrolled at the College and that receives a benefit from the College.20

(c) Student Organization Advisor means a person who (1) serves in an advisory capacity to a student organization and its members, (2) has aged at least 21 years, (3) is not a student at the College, and (4) is the College’s full-time employee or a part-time employee expressly authorized by a college president to serve in the appointed, volunteer capacity.

(d) Student Organization Representatives means the following four officer positions, or similar officer positions: the president, vice president, secretary, and treasurer.

VI.D.13.03. Procedures
The Chancellor will develop and publish procedures to effectuate this policy.

VI.E. STUDENT RESPONSIBILITIES

VI.E.1. Non-Academic Student Code of Conduct

VI.E.1.01 Policy
The College provides a safe and responsive learning environment for all students. The College achieves that environment by enforcing the Lone Star College System Non-Academic Student Code of Conduct. The Non-Academic Student Code of Conduct applies to all students enrolled in a credit or non-credit course at the College. It also applies to all online-only and hybrid students.

VI.E.1.02 Definitions
(a) Prohibited Computer Use can take many forms—especially in a fast developing industry—but the following list should allow students to understand the types of uses that are specifically prohibited. The following list is not a complete list, but does provide some illustrative examples for students to appreciate in using the College’s computers or its systems.

1. Intentionally disrupting the access of other students, faculty, or staff to the College’s digital or electronic resources;
2. Knowingly obtaining access to a computer account, identification number, or password assigned to another student, faculty member, staff member, or college office without authorization;
3. Knowingly using an account, identification number, or password belonging to another student, faculty member, staff member, or College office for other than its intended purpose without authorization, or using an identification number or an inactive account, password, or identification number;
4. Misusing the College’s computer equipment by falsifying or altering records or documents, damaging programs belonging to others, sending harassing or threatening material, or unlawfully duplicating copyrighted property;
5. Intentionally using the College's computer resources to store, download, upload, display, print, or email computer images that constitute “obscene materials” as defined by Texas law that are not directly related to, or required for, a specific educational course or research project related to an educational program;
